The city manager, or authorized representative, shall be responsible for the purchase of all supplies for all the departments or divisions of the city.

J. Investigations and Complaints. It shall be the duty of the city manager to make investigations into the affairs of the city and any department or division thereof, and any contract or the proper performance of any obligations of the city. Further, it shall be the duty of the city manager to investigate all complaints in relation to matters concerning the administration of the city government and in regard to the service maintained by public utilities in the city.

K. Public Buildings. It shall be the duty of the city manager and he or she shall exercise general supervision over all public buildings, public parks, and all other public property, which are under the control and jurisdiction of the city council.

L. Contractors. It shall be the duty of the city manager, or designee, to exercise management and control over contractors providing city services.

M. Additional Duties. It shall be the duty of the city manager to perform such other duties and exercise such other powers as may be delegated to him or her from time to time by ordinance or resolution or other official action of the city council. (Ord. 10 § 7, 1977)

2.04.070 Internal relations and coordination of intergovernmental services.

A. Council-Manager Relations. The city council and its members shall deal with the administrative services of the city only through the city manager, except for the purpose of inquiry, and neither the city council nor any member thereof shall give orders or instructions to any subordinates of the city manager. The city manager shall take his or her orders and instructions from the city council only when sitting in a duly convened council meeting. No council member shall give any orders or instructions to the city manager.

B. Departmental Cooperation. It shall be the duty of all subordinate officers and the city attorney to assist the city manager in administering the affairs of the city efficiently, economically and harmoniously.

C. Subject to the direction and control of the City Council, the city manager, or designee, shall manage all intergovernmental contracts, grant agreements and joint powers agreements on behalf of the City of Lemon Grove, or its subsidiary agencies, with other governmental agencies. The city manager, or designee, shall manage contracts with agencies including, but not limited to, the State of California, County of San Diego, Heartland Communications Authority, Heartland Fire and Rescue, San Diego County Sheriff's Department, San Diego Metropolitan Wastewater Authority, and the San Diego Association of Governments. For the purposes of providing public safety services to the citizens of Lemon Grove, the city manager shall supervise the appointed Fire Chief of Heartland Fire and Rescue as to all matters involving the City of Lemon Grove. The city manager shall work with the commanding officer of the Lemon Grove substation of the county of San Diego Sheriff's department in the implementation of the contract providing police services to the City of Lemon Grove. All references to "police" services in this Municipal Code shall mean the services provided by the San Diego Sheriff's department to the City of Lemon Grove. The City Manager, or designee, shall also provide support and assistance to Council-appointed members of Joint Powers Authorities and Intergovernmental Agencies in the performance of their duties.

D. Attendance at Commission Meetings. The city manager may attend any and all meetings of any commission, board, task force, focus group or committee (collectively "advisory body") created by the city council, upon the manager's own volition or upon direction of the city council. At such meetings, which the city manager attends, he or she shall be heard by the advisory body as to all matters upon which the city manager wishes to address the members thereof, and shall inform said members as to the status of any matter being considered by the city council. The city manager shall cooperate fully with the members of all advisory bodies created by the city council. (Ord. 433 § 1, 2015; Ord. 10 § 8, 1977)

2.32.030 Definitions.

As used in this chapter, the following terms shall have the meanings indicated:

“Appropriate unit” means a unit established pursuant to Section 2.32.100.

“City” means the city of Lemon Grove, California, a municipal corporation, and where appropriate herein, “city” refers to the city council, the governing body of the city, or any duly authorized management employee as herein defined.

“Consult or consultation in good faith” means to communicate orally or in writing for the purpose of presenting and obtaining views or advising of intended actions.

“Day” means calendar day.

“Employee” means any person regularly employed by the city excluding persons elected by popular vote.

“Employee, confidential” means an employee who is privy to decisions of city management affecting employer-employee relations.

“Employee, management” means any employee having significant responsibility for formulating and administering city policies and programs, including but not limited to the following positions:

1. City manager;
2. Development services director;
3. Public works director;
4. Finance director;
6. City clerk; and
5. City attorney.

“Employee, professional” means employees engaged in work requiring specialized knowledge and skills attained through completion of a recognized course of instruction, including but not limited to attorneys, physicians, registered nurses engineers, architects, teachers and various types of physical, chemical and biological scientists.

“Employee organization” means any organization which includes employees of the city and which has as one of its primary purposes representing such employees in their employment relations with the city.

“Employer-employee relations” means the relationship between the city and its employees and their employee organization, or when used in a general sense, the relationship between city management and employees or employee organizations.

“Firefighter” means a uniformed employee of the fire department.

“Impasse” means:

1. A deadlock in the annual or periodic discussions between a majority representative and the city over any matters concerning which they are required to meet and confer in good faith, or over the scope of such subject matter; or
2. Any unresolved complaint by an affected employee organization, advanced in good faith, concerning a decision of the municipal employee relations officer made pursuant to Sections 2.32.090, 2.32.100 or 2.32.110.

Attachment A

“Majority representative” means an employee organization, or its duly authorized representative, that has been granted formal recognition by the municipal employee relations officer as representing the majority of employees in an appropriate unit.

“Mediation or conciliation” means the efforts of an impartial third person, or persons, functioning as intermediaries, to assist the parties in reaching a voluntary resolution to an impasse, through interpretation, suggestion and advice. Mediation and conciliation are interchangeable terms.

“Meet and confer in good faith” (sometimes referred to in this chapter as “meet and confer” or “meeting and conferring”) means performance by duly authorized city representatives and duly authorized representatives of an employee organization recognized as the majority representative of their mutual obligation to meet at reasonable times and to confer in good faith regarding matters within the scope of representation, including wages, hours and other terms and conditions of employment, in an effort to:

1. Reach agreement on those matters within the authority of such representatives;
2. Reach agreement on what will be recommended to the city council on those matters within the decision-making authority of the city council.

This does not require either party to agree to a proposal or to make a concession.

“Municipal employee relations officer” means the city’s principal representative in all matters of employer-employee relations designated pursuant to Section 2.32.120, or his duly authorized representative.

“Peace officer.” As this term is defined in Section 830 of the California Penal Code.

“Recognized employee organization” means an employee organization which has been acknowledged in writing by the municipal employee relations officer as an employee organization that represents employees of the city. The rights accompanying recognition are either:

1. “Formal recognition,” which is the right to meet and confer in good faith as the majority representative in an appropriate unit; or
2. “Informal recognition,” which is the right to consultation in good faith by all recognized employee organizations.

“Scope of representation” means all matters relating to employment conditions and employer-employee relations, including but not limited to wages, hours and other terms and conditions of employment. City rights (Section 2.32.050) are excluded from the scope of representation. (Ord. 327 § 1, 2004)
